LOCATION: Lily Lake, Hwy. 7 across from Twin Sisters Trailhead. Meet at picnic tables.

Course Description: Through this series, students will unleash their creative potentials through various art forms including painting, sketching, and crafting. These artistic activities will allow students to see the world through a new lens and discover that nature is an artist itself. Each day will focus on a different art medium, offering a new perspective and skill set. Rocky Mountain National Park is a beautiful place, and this is an opportunity for students to take home their very own piece of it.

Course Level: II

Short-distance walks throughout the day primarily on level terrain.
